Alcohol and Smoking Policy
To respect the atmosphere of the campus community, the consumption of alcoholic beverages by alumni and their guests is prohibited except in reunion event spaces. Please keep alcohol within the confines of the event where it is served. The legal age for consumption of alcoholic beverages in Connecticut is 21. Smoking is not permitted in or near areas adjacent to all buildings, tents, or athletic fields.

Environmental Initiatives
Choate Rosemary Hall does not support the purchase of bottled water and has installed water refilling stations in many buildings around campus. Please take advantage of them.

Choate composts all campus food waste in an effort to be more environmentally sustainable. This includes the disposable plates, cups, napkins, and dinnerware used at events throughout the weekend, as these items are made from plant materials.
