What is the SDLC?
Since 1993, the National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS) has hosted the Student Diversity Leadership Conference (SDLC), one of the largest conferences geared towards advancing the work of student leaders invested in working towards equity and inclusion at independent schools.

When/Where?
Each year, the conference is held at a different location across the country. This year, SDLC will be held in Atlanta, GA from December 8th to December 10th.

Who’s going?
The Choate Diversity Education Committee (DEC) would like to invite all interested Choate students to apply to be one of SIX STUDENTS to represent our school at this year’s SDLC.
