Thank you to:

Mr. Ventre, for guiding me from our first adviser meeting in my freshman year to today.

Ms. Jones, for helping me organize all of my performances and recordings at Choate.

My cello teachers, Mr. Hudson and the late Mr. Dahlin, for helping me improve my technique and musicality and for telling me all of their stories of their cello journeys.

My friends, for playing games with me when I really should have been doing homework (worth it).

And my family, who encouraged, supported, and always believed in me.
