Words of thanks

Broadly, I would like to thank everyone who came to listen today as you are, right now, supporting me in a way I can never truly thank you enough for. Specifically, I would first like to thank my teachers. Mr. Justin, Dr. Sara, and finally Mr. Hudson, without your hard work and dedication to me as a student I would not be the cellist, nor the person, I am today. I would also like to thank Mr. Ventre and Mr. Wie, as well as the entire Arts Con community, who have become my family at Choate and have shown me the pert and joy that comes with playing with others. Finally, I would like to thank my parents (and my brother, maybe), for supporting me unconditionally throughout my entire life. What may have started as a simple hobby—something to focus my excess energy—has grown into a lifelong passion. It is you who have fueled that passion, no matter the cost to yourself, and for that I am forever grateful.
