Special thanks to:

Mr. Ventre, for teaching me discipline and stretching my limits as a musician.
Matt, for opening the door to the world of music theory. Without you, my love for music would remain a passion and not an artform.
Kaki, for showing me how music can envelop, surround, and change a person.
Mrs. Marci, for everything. Words can't describe how much you mean to me.
Jayden, for pushing me to be a better horn player everyday.
Mrs. Jones, for all your support during the recital-making process.
Dad, for listening to endless hours of me learning, making mistakes, and growing on the horn without complaint.
Mom, for encouraging me to pick up this beautiful instrument.
